Personal Profile:

I am a dedicated and passionate teacher specializing in the care and development of children aged 3 to 5. With a strong ability to connect with young learners, I believe in nurturing their emotional and intellectual growth through playful, engaging, and developmentally appropriate methods.

I incorporate play therapy techniques into daily learning to create a safe, joyful, and meaningful classroom experience. My teaching style blends creativity, compassion, and structure to support each child's unique path of growth.

I would strive towards creating an inclusive and inspiring learning environment where children feel seen, heard, and empowered to explore the world around them.
