Personal Profile:

A positively motivated and energetic lady who had a strong desire to provide excellent care for young children and teenagers daily in achieving their delayed milestones, with the strong believe that every child is teachable and that miracle still happens. With my years of experience and knowledge as a special need teacher, I use Play Therapy as a vital counselling tool to develop social, adaptative and personal skills in differently abled children. I work with children facing emotional and behavioral issues, and use Play Therapy (among other tools) to develop children with delayed milestones. I have a platform where we empower parents on the needs to see and take advantages of the uniqueness of their children. I believe in the power of Therapeutic Relationship.
