Personal Profile:

I am a Clinic Director in Psychological Service Clinic at The Universidad del Turabo Puerto Rico. I trained doctoral interns and master student in Counseling Psychology. We have special community projects with crime victims and childhood 0 -6, parents and teachers. I integrate Play Therapy as a principal counseling tool. Incorporate the Play in the Psychological assessment in a natural space to the child. Teach the parents how to play for strengthening the attachment and develop language, psychomotor, sociaffective and adaptative skills.
