Personal Profile:

Hi! I'm Ektaa, a passionate professional with a background in special education and a newfound commitment to enriching the lives of children through play therapy.

About Me: With years of experience as a special educator, I have witnessed the diverse needs of children with various learning challenges. I believe in embracing a holistic approach to education, I've expanded my expertise into play therapy to address the emotional and social aspects that are integral to a child's overall development.

Integration of Play Therapy and Special Education: I believe in a collaborative and holistic approach to education. By seamlessly integrating play therapy into my special education services, I aim to create an inclusive environment where children not only succeed academically but also thrive emotionally. Play therapy becomes a tool to enhance communication, build social skills, and unlock a child's full potential.

Services: My unique blend of special education and play therapy services is designed to create a comprehensive and supportive learning environment.

Services include:

1. Individualized Education Plans (IEPs): Drawing on my special education background, I integrate play therapy principles into personalized educational plans to address academic challenges while considering emotional well-being.
2. Remedial Services: Continuation of my commitment to academic support, offering targeted interventions to help children overcome learning difficulties and reach their full potential.
3. Play-Based Learning: Infusing play-based techniques into the learning process to enhance engagement, encourage creative expression, and make education a positive and enjoyable experience.
4. Emotional Support: Incorporating play therapy methods to address emotional and social needs, fostering resilience and self-esteem. I am excited about the opportunity to bring this dynamic approach to your child's educational journey.

If you're seeking a blend of specialized education and empathetic play-based interventions, I look forward to the chance to support your child's growth and development. Feel free to reach out with any questions or to discuss how this integrated approach can benefit your child.
